VPA's 2019 Acting & Music Showcase is the culmination of the students' training completed in the 2018-2019 season. Each show will be approximately one hour in length. Students in more than one show are permitted to remain at Virtuoso Performing Arts between shows under staff supervision or leave and return in time for their next performer arrival time.

 PLEASE NOTE *****

- This form, along with the Performance Dates & Policies 2018-2019 document, contains preliminary information regarding VPA's Acting & Music Showcase. More detailed production information will be released in early April.
- Production fee must be submitted along with this form; costume fees are included in class tuition.
- While we do recommend that all students participate in performance to receive the full benefit of their experience at VPA, we understand that sometimes it is not possible. Please notify us by Dec 5th if your child(ren) will not be able to perform with us. We will refund any applicable costume fees.
- There are no refunds on Costume Rental or Production Fees after December 31st.
- We do not honor withdrawals from performance classes after December 31st as specified in your registration agreement.
